Prevention of Sexual Harassment

Academic Year-2017-18

A Brief Report

As per the guidelines of UGC and the Supreme Court, Prevention of Sexual Harassment Committee has been established by the institute to provide a healthy atmosphere to the students of the institute. The meetings are conducted regularly to review the activities organized and to plan for future activities. Programs such as guest lectures by eminent resource persons, panel discussions, workshops, video screening, etc are organized to create awareness about issues relevant to sexual harassment, gender equality, violence on women, menstrual hygiene, etc. This committee aims to sensitize the students and staff and working diligently to prevent sexual harassment in the campus.
