Principal's Address:

After the introduction to the objectives, Principal Dr. Dnyaneshwar Suryawanshi delivered his address. He gave his views on the functioning of the college by describing innovative practices introduced in the college. While speaking over NAAC, he spoke on a concept TREE. According to him, NAAC process is just like a TREE & RECALL.

(Prin. Dr.D. S. Suryawanshi addressing Principal's Address)

Inauguration and Keynote Address Session:

The seminar inaugurated at the worthy hands of Dr. R. S. Mali, Ex. VC, NMU, Jalgaon by watering the plant. He also delivered a Keynote Address. He said, in his Keynote Address, that “we have got quantitative development in the higher education in the last 70 years but we are lagging behind in the qualitative development. It is a tragedy of the higher education institutions that we have not any one institution in the world ranking among first 100 institutions”. Mr. Akshay Chhajed, Chairman, VWS GC, Dhule presided over the inaugural Session. In his presidential address he said that “we must reach to the society for the development. Whatever we are doing it must be applicable for the society”. This session was concluded by the vote of thanks by Dr. P. M. Lagade.

Second Technical Session:

Principal Dr. V. Y. Sonawane was the Resource Person of this session. He addressed on the topic 'Role of the IQAC and Faculties in the Preparation of NAAC'. He said "the IQAC coordinators of the colleges have to be very silent with sugar coated tongue to collect the documents from faculties. Even the faculties also submit all their academic documents to the IQAC". Dr. Suvarna T. Shinde, Dhule presided over the session and conveyed vote of thanks.

(Prin. Dr. V. Y. Sonawane addressing Second Session)

Valedictory Function:

Principal Dr. Pramod Pawar, Dean of Faculty of Humanities was the Chief Guest of Valedictory Session. Asst. Prof. Ajabrao Ingale, Nizampur, Dhule shared his views on the seminar as the participant. The feedback forms collected by the participants. The Seminar was concluded by distribution of certificates and a vote of thanks by Dr. Y. G. Patil. IQAC members, all teaching and non-teaching staff made very strong efforts to make the Seminar a grand success.

Outcomes of the Seminar:

1. Face to face interaction with the Principals, IQAC Coordinators and faculties.
2. Thorough knowledge of new NAAC guidelines.
3. Became beneficial for all participants to prepare themselves for their all activities.
4. Improvements in the existing functioning of all departments and IQAC of college.
5. Strengthened teamwork of the college.
6. Knowledge and expertise sharing of the IQAC Coordinators.
7. Publication of resourceful research papers on NAAC and IQAC in UGC notified journal i.e. 'Research Journey'.

Shortcomings encountered:

1. Time Management
2. No Participants from outside of state except Resource Person.
3. Limited funding from the university.
